企业参访 Corporate Visits

外部讲师：武欣教授

语言：中文

演讲名称：《新门罗主义：地缘政治变现的态势及格局》

演讲简介：

巨变时代，专家预测集体失灵。当自由贸易的秩序崩塌，年轻决策者需回归第一性原理：全球正裂变为“美洲”与“欧亚”两大超级板块。这不仅是政经洗牌，更是昂撒、拉丁与伊斯兰文明博弈下的价值重估。全球化旧梦已碎，地缘变现开启。洞察板块间的势差红利与文明冲突，将是未来十年企业布局与卡位的唯一胜负手。

武欣教授 Wuxin

New Monroe Doctrine: Trends and Patterns of Geopolitical Monetization.

Language: Chinese

Speech Introduction:

In an era of great upheaval, expert predictions have collectively failed. As the order of free trade collapses, young decision-makers must return to first principles: the world is fracturing into two super-tectonic plates—the "Americas" and "Eurasia." This is not merely a political and economic reshuffle, but a reevaluation of values driven by the strategic interplay between Anglo-Saxon, Latin, and Islamic civilizations. The old dream of globalization has shattered, and the era of geopolitical monetization has begun. Gaining insight into the power differentials and dividends between these plates, as well as the clash of civilizations, will be the sole deciding factor for corporate positioning and strategic layout in the coming decade.

Internal Sharing: Patrick Ji (Shenzhen Chapter)

Language: Chinese

Speech Title:

Factory Evolution: From Debt Quagmire to Industrial Group

Speech Introduction:

In 2016, following the sudden passing of his father and facing immense debt, Patrick Ji resolutely took over the "Weifu Coating Factory." He confronted a cascade of challenges, including technical gaps, management deficiencies, and the urgent need to rebuild client relationships. In this session, he will share the critical decisions made during the early stages of his succession and how he regained his footing amidst the pandemic and market turbulence.

During the 2021 pandemic, leveraging keen insight and a bold M&A strategy, Patrick successfully broke through capital and technical bottlenecks. He capitalized on raw material price fluctuations driven by the Russia-Ukraine war, generating tens of millions of RMB in net profit. After six years of transformation, he completed the evolution from a debt-ridden factory to a manufacturing group of six factories spanning the chemical, hardware, plastic, packaging, and 3D printing industries. This sharing will offer practical inspirations on "turning crisis into opportunity" and the "Wild Goose Effect."

Internal Sharing: Brien Chua (Singapore & Malaysia Chapter)

Language: English

Speech Title: From Brand Owner of Singapore's Top Three Home & Lifestyle Brands to Livestreamer

Speech Introduction:

Over the past two years, a major turning point has completely reshaped my life and career path. Transitioning from focusing on brand building behind the scenes to stepping in front of the camera for livestreaming and real-time sales was not just a career shift, but a profound self-transformation.

This session will share the struggles and breakthroughs encountered during this transition, summarizing three key realizations: maintaining a positive mindset, sustaining creative thinking, and persevering through adversity. When resources are limited and pressure is mounting, only conviction and action can bring about a turning point.

Through authentic experience, this sharing invites everyone to rethink: Are we innovating for our ideals, or are we gradually becoming machines operating solely for profit? Let's help entrepreneurs rediscover their original aspirations and passion.

语言：中文

演讲名称：《人与人的合作，讲求缘分》

演讲简介：

我们这一生，会遇到形形色色的人：有的人擦肩而过，有的人同行一程，有的人能成为事业上的伙伴、生命里的知己。就像我们能相聚在雁博会这个大家庭，从陌生到熟悉，从同行到并肩，说到底，都是缘分在牵引。但合作中的缘分，从来不是“命中注定”的被动等待，而是藏着心态、边界、坚守与珍惜的主动修行。

缘分是天定的遇见，合作是人心的修行。愿我们都能在雁博会这个大家庭里，珍惜每一次相遇，善待每一份缘分，坚守初心、互勉互励。

Internal Sharing: Jeff Huang (Guangzhou Chapter)

Language: Chinese

Speech Title: Human Connection: Guided by Fate, Sustained by Heart

Introduction:

Life is a series of encounters. Some people just pass through, but some stay to become the pillars of our careers and lives. Our journey together in the Yanbo Fair family—from knowing each other's names to standing shoulder to shoulder—is a testament to the power of "Yuanfen" (Destiny). Yet, true collaboration isn't just "meant to be"; it is a conscious cultivation of our attitude, boundaries, and commitment.

While fate dictates the meeting, the heart determines the cooperation. Let us treasure every connection made here, nurture our shared bonds, and continue to inspire each other with unwavering purpose.

Preparation In Advance

Emergency Contact: The emergency services number in Hong Kong is 999, which is equivalent to 110/120/119 in Mainland China.

Areas to Avoid: It is strongly advised not to stay at Chungking Mansions, regardless of gender, due to its complex environment and potential safety concerns. It is recommended to choose hotels in safe, convenient areas such as Tsim Sha Tsui or Mong Kok.

Non-Smoking Areas: Indoor venues and many outdoor public spaces are designated as non-smoking areas. Violators face a maximum fine of HKD 5,000. If you need to smoke, please look for the designated smoking signs near orange trash bins.

Feeding Pigeons: Do not feed pigeons in Hong Kong; doing so may result in a fine of HKD 3,000.

Floor Numbering: The floor numbering system in Hong Kong differs from that in Mainland China: G refers to the Ground Floor (1st Floor in China), LG1 refers to Lower Ground 1 (Basement 1), and F1 refers to the 1st Floor (2nd Floor in China).
